Santeramo Wins Again in Florida Amateur Drivers Club

Pompano Beach, FL (December 28, 2011) – FADC members performed in their tenth Amateur Trot event last night at Pompano Park and it produced the first 3-time seasonal winner. Thomas Santeramo garnered his third win in just four FADC starts in the fall-winter meet. Jamie Marra is the only 2-time winner in the competitive series.

Driving the Illinois bred You Go Girl (bm6 Smokey Legend-Heather Doreen-Sorcerer Hanover), Santeramo engineered a come from behind win over Laurie Poulin driven I'm Possible who was off-stride at the wire and placed third behind lapped on Mr. Taurus and Joe Pennacchio. You Go Girl won for the 22nd time in her career boosting her career earnings to $95,449.

Be sure to be on hand for FADC racing action and offer thanks to the members who donate their drivers' winnings to charities. FADC has now donated over $100,000 to charities.

New Year's Eve also promises to be an exciting night at Pompano as the Open Pace features Little Brown Jug winner Big Bad John and other patron friendly promotions will be offered including special food offerings at trackside and post racing fireworks. Be there to support Florida standardbred racing.
