The last set of Sunshine Stake winners left Such A Dreamer and Cracker Coffee still in the hunt for the Florida Bonus and inspired a bit of pedigree research. Such A Dreamer (Arapa Victory-Such A Sensation) is the first foal from a $65,000 winning Armbro Laser mare. Deep in the maternal family is the good producing broodmare Nancy Dear (Guy Abbey-Annabella-Volomite), a half sister to Merrie

Annabelle and Kentucky Belle. The sire Arapa Victory descends from the Spinster Hanover maternal line that produced the great trotters Magician 1:52.2 ($3,579,103) and Iceland 1:53.2 ($1,166,789), the 2010 Elitloppet winner, he by Stefan Melander's Hambletonian winner Scarlet Knight.

Cracker Coffee, an exceptional FL-sired pacing filly by the prolific Six Of Diamonds, is the third foal from $148,000 winner Nasty As Can Be 1:53.1f, a 100% producer from foals of racing age that include $418,000 winner Dark Sign 1:51.0. There are ten other $100,000 plus winners in the pedigree including Kentucky Briar 1:49.2s ($558,979) and Scoot The Issue 1:53.0 ($250,620).

Keep an eye on this pair of 2 year old fillies in their quest for the bonus. They have power pedigrees on their side, and illustrate the opportunity to buy potential FL-sired stakes winners at the November 6 FSBOA Yearling and Mixed Sale at Pompano Park.
